

Good Charlotte, Self Help

All I have right now
Is right here
And right now
All I have right now
Is right here

i want what i want i always have when no one cared about me dreams were all I had but nightmares grow when no one's listening and idle thoughts will do their thing I still feel so much pain here from the past and it cuts like a knife it feels like a fight to take back your life

searching for the meaning I'm living in these feelings I'm ready for a reason to believe now I'm working on my insides cause outside there's no reasoning whit anyone here it's never what it seems

all I have right now
is right here

I felt so bad about myself I never thought I was good enough for anybody else I couldn't look love in the eye I was too broken to try life was a cold song that taught me not to cry

and it cuts like a knife

I'm living in these feelings
I'm ready for a reason to believe

now I'm working on my insides
cause outside there's no reasoning
whit anyone here it's never what it seems

how long I waited feeling lost frustrated locked out and I'm on my own cornered and I got no place to go how long should I stay here all alone

searching for the meaning
I'm living in these feelings
I'm ready for a reason to believe

now I'm working on my insides
cause outside there's no reasoning
whit anyone here it's never what it seems

is right here
