

Goon Moon, Move Along

Well, I'm so proud of you, you made it this far
What you're allowed to do, when you're a star
And you arouse the fools, who know who you are
And then you shout to prove, how it comes from the heart

I said
"Yes, yes baby" is what they say to you
But oh no, lately, there ain't no respect for you

Get a hold of your backbone, baby
Stop singing the same old song
Still saying you might stay, maybe
It's time to move along

Get a hold of your backbone, baby
Stop singing the same old song
Still saying you might stay, maybe
It's time to move along

You really think you're right
It's not worth the fight
'Cause I don't even value your opinion

You really think you're right
It's not worth the fight
'Cause I don't even value your opinion

Get a hold of your backbone, baby
Stop singing the same old song
Still saying you might stay, maybe
It's time to move along

Get a hold of your backbone, baby
Stop singing the same old song
Still saying you might stay, maybe
It's time to move along

I said
"Yes, yes baby" is what they say to you
But oh no, lately, there ain't no respect for you

I said
"Yes, yes baby" is what they say to you
But oh no, lately, there ain't no respect for you

Get a hold of your backbone, baby
Stop singing the same old song
Still saying you might stay, maybe
It's time to move along

Get a hold of your backbone, baby
Stop singing the same old song
Still saying you might stay, maybe
It's time to move along

It's, it's time, it's time to move along
It's time to move along
It's time, it's time to move along
Don'tcha know now

It's time, it's time to move along
It's time, it's time to move along
It's time, it's time to move along
It's time, it's time to move along, move along

It's time, it's time, it's time, it's time
It's time, it's time to move along
It's time, it's time to move along

Stop singing the same old song
Stop singing the same old song
Stop singing the same old song
Stop singing the same old song
