

Gorillaz, El Manana

Summer don't know me no more he just let me go tiresome.

Summer don't know me
He just left me low in my soul
But I too know love,
from you that's Just dying

I saw that day,
Lost my mind
Lord, I'm fine
And in time
You'll want to be mine

Don't stop the sun when it comes
It's the dawn, you'll see

Money won't get there
Ten years gone and now
You'll flee

If you do that
I'll be strong

To find you

I saw that day,
Lost my mind
Lord, I'm fine
And in time
You'll want to be mine

I saw that day,
Lost my mind
Lord, I'm fine
And in time
You'll want to be mine

And in time
You'll want to be mine

And in time
You'll want to be mine

And in time
You'll want to be mine

And in time
You'll want to be mine
