

Gorillaz, New Gold (ft. Tame Impala & Bootie Brown)

But in the magic gold, there's a pretty one
I ask her where it goes 'cause I really wanna
I wonder if she knows that we're underwater
That's the way it goes in the city wonder
Moved to the spot, I'm one of a few
A whole lot of everything, but nothing to do
'Til the end of Tesla, pardon the ex-wrestler
He dates Francesca, they on them Xannies
Liposuction's scheduled for Granny
She want to save some add to her nanny girls' trip
Miami at the end of the year
Polluted-filled skies, trying to think clear
I heard the bad news, while I was shedding a beer
Watch out from the coast, Paul Revere
We all play a part in the Devil's cheer
Run to the hills 'cause the end is near
But in the magic gold, there's a pretty one
I ask her where it goes 'cause I really wanna
I wonder if she knows that we're underwater
That's the way it goes in the city wonder
Yo, a desolate city where it hurts to smile
Ran into the Reverend, says it's been a while
I'm reining in the Randal, she's a social scandal
Gave ourselves a handout when it's too much to bare
ABC boys ready to mare
Like Shaun, he's a rider, took on a dare
Now he's singing like a birdy, pulling on his hair
Trending on Twitter's what some of us live for Branches here and out, fucking revolving door
All of this a joke? Pauly Shore
Bullshit keeps comin', baby, I'm a Matador
What are we living for?
Are we all losing our minds?
Because life got in the way
(Hey, hey, hey)
Things will be here just in time
Your replacement is here to stay (ahh)
New gold, fool's gold
Everything will disappear (new gold)
Someone's out here
Who traveled far too many years (new gold)
To nowhere, nowhere (new gold, new gold)
Nothing here is ever real (new gold)
New gold, fool's gold (new gold)
Everything will disappear, disappear
Disappear, disappear, disappear
Disappear, disappear, disappear
Disappear, disappear, disappear, disappear
But in the magic gold, there's a pretty one
I ask her where it goes 'cause I really wanna
I wonder if she knows that we're underwater
That's the way it goes in the city wonder (new gold)
But in the magic gold, there's a pretty one (new gold, new gold, new gold)
I ask her where it goes 'cause I really wanna (new gold, new gold, new gold)
I wonder if she knows that we're underwater (new gold, new gold, new gold)
That's the way it goes in the city wonder (new gold, new gold, new gold)
In the magic gold, there's a pretty one (new gold, fool's gold)
I ask her where it goes 'cause I really wanna (everything will disappear)
I wonder if she knows that we're underwater (someone's out here)
That's the way it goes in the city wonder (who travelled far too many years)
But in the magic gold, there's a pretty one (to nowhere, nowhere)
