

Gosia Andrzejewicz, Don't Be Scared (ft. Ricky Bry)

Don't be scared
Don't be scared
Don't be scared

In the pouring rain I am waiting for the miracle to come
I know love is complicated, hard to find

In the pouring rain I am praying
For you special one to come and save my life
Come here
Where are you?

If you see me in the dark my baby
All alone one day
Could you say?:

Stay with me
Let the rain all doubts and sadness wipe away
Babe give a chance again
Let me be your light babe
Love can start again
Don't be scared
Don't be scared

I know I can make you happy
And do anything for you
I know there is pain but trust me
We make it through

You deserve to be with someone who
Who will love you more than life and make you smile
If I find you in my life my baby
All alone one day
I would say: I want you to

Stay with me
Let the rain all doubts and sadness wipe away
Babe give a chance again
Let me be your light babe
Love can start again

Let me be your Valentine be your happiness and smile
Let me be your light again
Everyday I feel so lonely
Waiting for your love and heart
Waiting for my life to start
Wanna be your Valentine
So come and just tell me:

Stay with me
Let the rain all doubts and sadness wipe away
Babe give a chance again
Let me be your light babe
Love can start again

Don't be scared
Waiting for your love and heart
Don't be scared
Waiting for my life to start
Don't be scared
Wanna be your valentine
Don't be scared
So come

Don't be scared
