

Gothminister, Your Saviour

You wanna run like hell to the beating drum
For this is no good place to die
You see that
Nothing here is motionless
Cause all your fears are out tonight

Im here to be your saviour
And take it all
Be your saviour
Wont let you fall

This is what you get
For not listening,
Now the underground is at war
Haunted beings in robes of sorrow
As you have never ever seen before

Im here to be your saviour
And take it all
Be your saviour
Wont let you fall
Im here to be your saviour,
Answer your call

This is the only secret
To why you feel this plague
Believe in God and in Hell?
Youll have faith in yourself

Im here to be your saviour
Im here to be your saviour

Im here to start your fire and embrace your soul
We save the fallen angels
Make you face what you cant ignore
We save the fallen angels
Im here to be your saviour, answer your call

Answer your Call
There is but one; your saviour
There is but one; your saviour
