Grandaddy, This Is How It Always Starts

This is how it always starts
All order falls apart
Okay, so who put this key in the mix?

Things were stable yesterday But now they're blown away Oh shit, I can't let them see me like this

Nothing sweet Nothing nice Nothing kiss, only fights

Nothing clear Nothing bright Nothing I'll feel tonight

Nothing great Nothing good Nothing is as it should

Nothing rad Nothing right Nothing I'll feel tonight

This is how it always starts
Dumb choices from the heart
Oh shit, I can't let them see me like this

Nothing sweet Nothing nice Nothing kiss, only fights
