Grandaddy, Yeah Is What We Had

Yeah is what he had No, we never knew Good, good is what we understood Yeah is what he had No, we never knew Good, good is what we understood

Now I walk alone through howling winds Fast food bags wrapped round my shins Remembering (remembering) Wondering

In this life Will I ever see you again In this life Will I ever see you again

Yeah is what he had No, we never knew Good, good is what we understood Yeah is what he had No, we never knew Good, good is what we understood

Data files and dinner dates sumday Telling me that I, I best be on my way Remembering (remembering) Wondering

In this life Will I ever see you again In this life Will I ever see you again...
