Grave Digger, The Ballad Of Mary (Queen Of Sco

My fingers touch the solid stones Strong and cold, they keep me from home Imprisoned like a wingless dove Far away from the land I love

Lonely days count lonley years I have cried a thousand tears All that I tried to gain Is lost the effort was invane

At Carberry hill I lost my crown My husband fled my luck went down In England's hands I fell 18 years a living hell

The Scotish crown belongs to me Yet I'm bound I can not flee With iron claws England holds tight All is lost no chance to fight

Silence - Silence Everywhere

(Chorus:)
Cold walls are my reward
Lonelyness engulves my soul
I've been true i gave my heart
Stained tears i cried
I long to be free again
To walk in peace again
Scotland cries her queen is lost
Agony's her friend again
