

Gravity Kills, Crashing

Mouth open tongue that I taste
No lover can kill you this way
Like poison I feel it drip down
Take over - insanity makes no sound

That's all I'm getting. It's all but fitting
You turn my meaning inside out

When it all comes crashing down
Comes crashing down
Your spirit dies inside
When it all comes crashing down
Comes crashing down
Your spirit hides inside your dream

Fear nothing lips turning blue
So quiet whispering sex to you
Far too busy for me to ignore
Skin crawling, I want you to be my whore

I look so pretty, so fucking pretty
I know you're ready to give me more

When it all comes crashing down
Comes crashing down
Your spirit dies inside
When it all comes crashing down
Comes crashing down
Your spirit hides inside your dream

That's all you're getting, it's all but fitting
You turn my meaning inside out
You look so pretty, so fucking pretty
You turn my meaning inside out

When it all comes crashing down
Comes crashing down
Your spirit dies inside
When it all comes crashing down
Comes crashing down
Your spirit hides inside your dream
