

Green Day, Stuart and the Ave

Standing on the corner of
Stuart and the Ave.
Ripping up my transfer
And a photograph of you
You're a blur of my dead past
And rotting existence
As I stand loughing on the corner of Insignificance!!

Ref:

Destiny is dead
In the hands of bad luck
Before it might have made some sense
But now it's all FUCKED UP!!
Season change as well as minds
And I'm a two-faced clown
Your mommy's little nightmare
Driving Daddy's car around
I'm beat down and half brain dead
The long lost king of fools
I may be dumb
But I'm not stupid enough to stay
With you
