Greta Van Fleet, My Way, Soon

I've seeb many people There are s omany people Some are much younger people An soem are so old

I've seen many places There are so many places An where are the people going Will they choose the road

I've packed my bags and i've got m freedom I've sacked the rules so i don;t have to heed tchem I;ll bet on a Chance if i've just go one I'll throw out the plan and live with no burden

I have but a lifetime Seems so lobg but it flies by And in the moments passing I'll bear no load

I have to Wander Many miles far yonder And with so much left to ponder I choose the road

I've packed my bags and i've got m freedom I've sacked the rules so i don;t have to heed tchem I;ll bet on a Chance if i've just go one I'll throw out the plan and live with no burden

I've packed my bags and i've got m freedom I've sacked the rules so i don;t have to heed tchem I;ll bet on a Chance if i've just go one I'll throw out the plan and live with no burden
