

Gretchen Wilson, One Bud Wiser

[Chorus]

Well I'm one bud wiser than I was a minut ago
I found an equalizer that makes his memory a no show
And I won't be jonesin'
for his loving anymore
Cause I'm one bud wiser than I was a minute ago

I dropped a quarter played "Golded Ring" on the juke box
Placed my order with the guy behind the bar
And when he haded me a cold one, I said "Keep the change, Darlin'";
And as I drank it down I felt the healing start.

[Repeat Chorus]

When he left me he took my brand new Silverado
I started thumbin' and I finally hitched a ride
I just came in here to drink a beer and watch the rednecks fight
Now I don't feel so bad going home alone tonight

[Repeat chorus]

And I won't be jonesin' for his lovin' any more
'Cause I'm one bud wiser than I was a minute ago
Yes I'm one bud wiser...
