

Grey, Story Book Love

Verse 1:

She remembers love. She remembers hope. She remembers all those days.
And she'll tell you so.
I remember holding. I remember summer days. I remember souls.
And I remember how souls sway.

Chorus:

Trying to be innocent. Trying to reach above.
Trying to recover from a story book love.
Trying to make sense. Trying to see away.
Trying to leave behind me all those bad days.

Verse 2:

She remembers smiles. She remembers songs. She remembers dancing days.
I remember words. I remember wonderous days. I remember hearts.
And I remember how hearts can sway.

Verse 3:

She remembers Europe. She remembers the Orient. She remembers loving me.
And she'll tell you so.
I remember paris. I remember laughing days. I remember love.
And I remember how love kills.
