

Gromee, Share the joy (Roxie Węgiel & Common)

i got this butterfly my body keeps on holdin'
go and walk
I am excited every day and I am laughing whit every breathing the life brings sky unlimited I feel free, I feel free, yaeh

if I'm dreaming, I guess you could just wake me cuz I am living life it's been given to me where are my mother, my sisters and brothers feel free, so free!

If you ever need somebody, I got you although I may not know what to do not every day is the greatest yes, it's true
but if you clean your mind you get it through just wanna share
Share the Joy
Share the Joy
Share the Joy
just wanna share
Share the Joy
Share the Joy
Share the Joy

just wanna share
Share the Joy
Share the Joy
Share the Joy

let's catch this good times in the bottle and just save it and imagine, no matter rainy days it; can always be perfect but this time make the weather for me from me
from me

if I'm dreaming, I guess you could just wake me but I am dreams about things just coming true coz it's all about us together I crossed my heart forever but trust me, you'll see

If you ever need somebody, I got you
yes, it's true
but if you clean your mind you get it through
just wanna share
Share the Joy
Share the Joy
Share the Joy
just wanna share
Share the Joy
Share the Joy
Share the Joy

just wanna share
Share the Joy
Share the Joy
