

Gryffin, Gorgon City, AlunaGeorge, Baggage

i move miles and miles to get out of your face but I still see your smile, still on every face and I bring all of the shit I got from you now whenever I move on to someone new now

I look out for your grey car when I am out on the road and when I roll paper it's the way that you showed and I were all of the habits that you gave me right next to all the crazy that you made me

I never wanna /3x
think about you again
but I do sometimes
I never wanna /3x
think about you again
but I left all your baggage in my head you made it impossible to forget cause you left all your baggage in my head you left all your baggage
