

Guided By Voices, Ester's Day

jimmy was a fly got sucked in by an actor and wrapped in a cocoon and skin-tight buffoonery now here's the plan...

scene from ester's day of running backward courses with a horse of different forces lying wings of films that seem to never see the screen couldn't bear to face their dreams

down and out
couldn't bear to shout it out brought up on the road a sparkle shiny diner is the home for wayward minor in a flying car that seems to whisper in an ear let's just go get out of here

couldn't bear to shout it out...
