

Gus Gus (GusGus), Teenage Sensation

I feel my heart slamming
Against my ribs
The smell of your body
And the touch of your lips
You are beyond all imagination
You are beyond all imagination
Gee, I love you so much I can look and I
Can touch
I can touch
My teenage sensation
Your skin must be from another world
My limbs are numbed with your
Pleasuredome
For the first time
A revelation
Beyond all imagination
Gee, I love you so much
I can look and I can touch
I can touch
My teenage sensation
And I think maybe it's wrong
How young is too young
How young is too young
My teenage sensation ?
