

Gus Gus (GusGus), Teenage Sensations

I feel my heart slamming against my ribs
The smell of your body and the touch of your lips
You are beyond all imagination
You are beyond all imagination
Gee, I love you so much
I can look and I can touch
I can touch my teenage sensation
My teenage sensation
My teenage sensation
Your skin must be from another world
My limbs are numbed with your pleasure dome
For the first time a revelation
Beyond all imagination
Gee, I love you so much
I can look and I can touch
I can touch my teenage sensation
And I think maybe it's wrong (My teenage sensation)
How young is too young? (My teenage sensation)
How young is too young?
My teenage sensation (Repeat 10 X's and fade)
