

Guy Sebastian, Choir

i know it's weird say this but I've been thinking about it lately reminiscing about us in Vegas drinking like we famous man, those days were crazy but you booked run out of pages and now I wish I never waited to tell you all the moments in my life the once I got to share with you you were probably my favorite

I know you lookin' down on us I missing you bro i hope you proud of us at least I know you made it home and I know you're not alone can I say the choir now you dancing with the crew you ain't doing this solo you alright, it's true
