

H-Blockx, Stars

sunny days in a winter world scatter deception in her eyes a glimmer of white has fallen on her smile now she cries, a sunny world has died these days now I know, she longs for the days she now denies

chorus:
she has fallen from the stars and I don't know what it was the sugar bowl snowed in her tomorrow yes, she calls upon the stars on her way of broken glass to take away that bowl of sorrow that bowl of sorrow

yesterday's fading grey, she forgot the kid she used to be the pallor white she seeks for day by day, I forgot the kid she used to be

now I know, she longs for the days she now denies
