

HAIM, Right Now

Gave you my love
You gave me nothing
Said, what I gave was not enough
You had me feeling
I was foolish forever thinking
This could be the one

I wasn't even in the running
Already had your mind made up
You left me searching for a reason why you leave
Left me in the depth

Saying that you need me, baby
Right Now
Right Now
And now you're saying that you need me, baby
Right Now
Right Now
And now you're saying that you love me, love me baby
Right Now
Right Now
And now you're saying that you need, that you me,
Right Now

I think my love
That I could trust you
You let me down on every thing
You had me hanging on a dream
You've never believed in
You gave me a world
Finally on the other sadness
And I could see my ..
And then forgot of every of them

Now Saying that you need me, baby
Right Now
Right Now
And now you're saying that you need me, baby
Right Now
Right Now
And now you're saying that you love me, love me baby
Right Now
Right Now
And now you're saying that you need, that you me,
Right Now

Not now, not now
I know
Hurt me through another window
Whispers sound to your ear
Whispers sound it's so clear

Now Saying that you need me, baby
Right Now
Right Now
And now you're saying that you need me, baby
Right Now
Right Now
And now you're saying that you love me, love me baby
Right Now
Right Now
And now you're saying that you need, that you me,
Right Now
