

half-alive, Nobody

so exhausted with ego & feelings that free load & leave me so empty all the parties of people moving the needle obsessing, never ending watch me take it over

move your body over
make a little room for me
see 'em at the top
or leave 'em at the bottom focus on the come up
become someone

moving up the ladder doesn't really matter as long as i am in the lead

the more that i grow
the more that i've come to know it's hard to be someone & it hurts to be nobody
playing this game
it's easy to lose both ways yeah it's hard to be someone

oh, i hate loving what you think i hate the way i change the way i speak i'm stuck, oh Lord, feeding on the hype but just because i like it doesn't make it right

purpose on a pedestal looking back at you look what i have done look what i can do

but imagine me having nothing to prove & nothing to lose
& have the courage to be nobody nobody nobody nobody could hold me down

hard to be someone hurts to be nobody
