

Halsey, 1121

[Verse 1]

Well, I won't die for love
But I've got a body here to bury
And if truth be told, it's scary
'Cause my shoulders are heavy already
And, yeah, I know
The parts of myself that I've hated
And I can't tell which ones are mine
And which I created

[Chorus]

But I won't die for love
But ever since I met you
You could have my heart
And I would break it for you
And I won't die for love
But ever since I met you
You could have my heart
And I would break it for you

[Verse 2]

Take one in the temple, my tongue is a vessel
I try to be careful with the thing inside my chest
You shoot for the memory so you can forget me
I'll leave if you let me, ooh

[Chorus]

But I won't die for love
But ever since I met you
You could have my heart
And I would break it for you

[Bridge]

Please don't leave (I'm runnin' out of time to tell you)
Don't leave me in the shape you left me (I'm runnin' out of things that I regret)
Please don't leave (I'm runnin' out of time to tell you)
Don't leave me in the shape you left me (I'm runnin' out of things that I regret)
Please don't leave
Don't leave me in the shape you left me (You took me)
Please don't leave
Just leave me in the place you found me safe and soundly

[Chorus]

I won't die for love
But ever since I met you
You could have my heart
And I would break it for you

[Outro]

Well, I won't die for love
But ever since I met you
You could have my heart
And I would break it for you
