

Halsey, People Disappear Here

[Verse 1]

Way down a dark alleyway
And somewhere in the Garden State
A girl from California waits
She has□my□name but not□my face

[Pre-Chorus 1]

And I, tried to let□her be someone
Hoping when the morning comes
She's not another hit and run that everybody knows

[Chorus]

The people disappear here, ah
People disappear here, ah
People disappear here, ah
People disappear here, ah

[Verse 2]

So let's say for goodness sake
That she cleans it up and finds her way
But a child can't affect her fate
And you pay, and you pay, and you pay

[Pre-Chorus 2]

And now, maybe if you see someone
Hoping when the evening comes
You're not another hit and run that everybody knows

[Chorus]

The people disappear here, ah
People disappear here, ah
People disappear here, ah
People disappear here, ah

[Bridge]

I hurt myself to make sure I exist
I pinch myself to make sure that I'm real
I hurt myself to make sure I exist
I need someone to tell me how I feel

[Chorus]

'Cause people disappear here, ah
People disappear here, ah
People disappear here, ah

[Outro]

(People disappear here
People disappear here
People disappear here
People disappear here
People disappear here)
