Halsey, Ya'aburnee

[Verse 1] I get undertones of sadness When I think about the moments That I never got to spend with you I can't decide If I love you more in morning Or I love you more at night With its luminous lux tides Maybe in the daylight All its pretty madness And the complicated status 'Cause the moon don't pick sides And the sun won't resign Until you're by my side Because the longing needs the leaving And the loving needs the bleeding And your beauty is a blessing And I never got to tell you how I love the way my eyes make yours look green too

[Chorus]

I think we could live forever
In each other's faces 'cause I'll Always see my youth in you
And if we don't live forever
Maybe one day, we'll trade places
Darling, you will bury me
Before I bury you
Before I bury you

[Verse 2] I'll never know If there's danger in confession Or it's memory that presses Like a blade against my throat Another word and I could choke But what's worse? Tellin' you my feelings Or to die without revealing That you crawled inside my head And set a fire there instead? Letting all my insecurity Devour me with certainty That love is just a currency So take my pockets, take me whole Take my life and take my soul Wrap me in a wedding ring You know I swear I'd give you anything

[Chorus]

And I think we could live forever In each other's faces 'cause I'll Always see my youth in you And if we don't live forever Maybe one day, we'll trade places Darling, you will bury me Before I bury you Before I bury you
