

Hammerfall, Evil Incarnate

Who's there.
Walking the shadows I fear
I am in deep
The nightmares they won't disappear
Leave me alone

Lay down
Lay down your arms on the ground
You've been sent here
To champion for the unbound, yeah

Satan's scheme falls into place
An evil grin upon his face

No fear
The duels about to begin
I've got a black hand
The hand of the dead man can win, yeah

Satan slips another ace
A thousand souls will fall from grace

Evil Incarnate, the son of man
Lost to the great deceiver
Evil Incarnate, I failed the plan
A new inception reigns

Evil Incarnate, the son of man
Lost to the great deceiver
Evil Incarnate, I failed the plan
A new inception reigns
