

Hammet Melanie, C. Columbus

some men are born with strong hearts that raging tides won't tear apart but not me
i am Christopher Columbus it was 1987 when i sailed away to the edge of my sea it was an uncertain start i was born with an unsteady heart but it was all i had to guide me

CHORUS

to brave the wind and water some hearts stay whole on an endless sea
some men are born with strong hearts
last night i had a bad dream i believe that i was drowning somewhere in an unknown pool and god, i am a young man cannot remember where i am find me a map, fine me a clue

i am living in El Paso every day is a fever - i try not to burn and i am Christopher Columbus alive, living in El Paso and i walk the roof
to wait for my return
