

Hammet Melanie, Not Backing Down sometimes i get so tired - sometimes it gets too hard i don't know what keeps me going and i whistle in the dark sometimes it feels like there's work to be done and i can barely maintain and there's not enough time and i'm so far behind and nothing will ever change

CHORUS

i'm not backing away, not backing out, not backing down a fire will burn, it's coming my way i've got an ear to the ground but i'm not backing down there are days that pass like hours there are hours that pass like days there are lifetimes to be left behind and i can't seem to walk away there are days when i'm just killing time and days when it kills me and i can't see the end of the endless days and i don't have the energy

but inside my heart is a dream - it's a dream that won't let me fall tho sometimes a dream is just a dream and what's real is the clock on the wall well maybe i'm a fool with a joker up my sleeve but i have my dream - i believe what i know and i know what i believe
