

Hanson, We All Know

Don't wanna hear about why you've been weepin' now
Don't tell me 'bout why you ain't sleepin' well
Ohhhh
Don't tell me that now you feel bad
You got a heading from the news this morning

(bridge)

And we all know, it ain't right
And we all think love is blind
And we all know that we won't be sleeping tonight
Now please don't ask me why, 'cause then I'll be forced to lie
And we all know that we won't be sleeping tonight
We won't be sleeping tonight yeah, yeah

(chorus)

I can leave it, and I can give it
Well, I cannot go on, I don't know what to do
You can fake it, and try to make it
The more you justify, the more I see right through

Well there's been a change in the weather now
You'll find the law and find a way to weasel out
Ohhh
Just talked to you; you told me to turn on the news this morning

And we all know, it ain't right
And we all think love is blind
And we all know that we won't be sleeping tonight
Now please don't ask me why, 'cause then I'll be forced to lie
And we all know that we won't be sleeping tonight
We won't be sleeping tonight yeah, yeah

I can leave it, and I can give it
Well, I cannot go on, I don't know what to do
You can fake it, and try to make it
The more you justify, the more I see right through

Just talked to you, you told me to turn on the news this morning

And we all know, it ain't right
And we all think love is blind
And we all know that we won't be sleeping tonight
Now please don't ask me why, 'cause then I'll be forced to lie
And we all know that we won't be sleeping tonight
We won't be sleeping tonight yeah, yeah

Yeah, and we all know it ain't right
But we all think love is blind
And we all know that we won't be sleeping tonight

Can you really look me in the eye with a love that's hope to die
And we all know that we won't be sleeping tonight

And we all know it ain't right
But we all think love is blind
We all know that we won't be sleeping tonight
We won't be sleeping tonight, yeah
