

Harem Scarem, How Long

It's gonna take some time 'til I'm over you
I'd gave you it all, there wasn't nothing that I wouldn't do
Now that it hurts so bad, when I found out the truth
That you'd been running around, Oh I was such a fool

I know I can't keep holding on, cause it's hard for me
Now that you're gone, I'm haunted by your memory

How long, 'til my heart can love again
I've tried and I've tried, I don't know what else to do
How long 'til this broken heart mends
Will I ever be over you

So many sleepless nights since we've been apart
They say time will ease the pain, tell this broken heart
I know I can't keep holding on, cause it's hard for me
Now that you're gone, I'm haunted by your memory
