Harmony, Why Me

Nobody likes me They're all against me Oh why What have I done To make them hate me Oh why I was always the one To love and help the ones Who'd done me wrong And all I can say is Why is this happening To me why me Because I was the one Who'd let it all slide by I never stood up to them And now I'm the one to cry I used to be happy But not anymore Oh why I never did anything To hurt anybody Oh why I never condemned Or hated the ones Who'd done me wrong I think to myself Why is this happening To me why me Because I was the one Who'd let it all slide by I never stood up to them And now I'm the one to cry
