

Hawk Nelson, 14

The sun goes down and then she slips away
You get so lonely after dark
If only we could relive yesterday
Tomorrow always seems so far

Ooo-ooo-ooo-oo x 6

The end is near so much is left to say
The world is getting cold tonight
The traumatized people are so afraid
I smile 'cause everything's alright.

Ooo-ooo-ooo-oo x 6

Woah, woah, woah, woah, woah, woah

Ooo-ooo-ooo-oo x 12
