Hazel O'Connor, Smile

Hazel O`Connor - Neil O'Connor

I swim across
A sea of broken dreams
I know that scene drownin's as easy as it seems Yeah I know, I smile and let it go

I smile and let it go
I smile across
I try and dance again
Feelin' the heat Feelin' the beat
Do you dance?
I don't know
I smile and it won't show
I smile and it won't show

I smile when that mother chats me up
to bring me down
I smile when you take me higher just to drop me to the ground
I smile
Because I understand

I smile because I know
And would you up and lead me on the floor Dancing alone swing through the crowd Swing to the shore
Even though, I smile and then I go
I smile and then I go Turn turn again get up  see just find your feet
just find the right beat to ***************
I smile and let it go

to bring me down
I smile when you take me higher
just to drop me to the ground
I smile
Because I understand
