

Headstone Epitaph, Hole in the Sky

(Tim: I had a pumping riff which reminded me a bit of DIO)
(and i tried for months to get the right hook:)
(An individual person can not change the world.)

soon we realize that hole in the sky
we don't know why
there is no tomorrow
our time it is borrowed
for a while

(ref:)

there's a hole in the sky
but we don't know why
maybe they want
that all people die
it doesn't matter
who's wrong or right
we really don't want to die
by the hole in the sky

(vers:)

wake up all you people
we know it's no secret
we can't be that blind
we hope it is fertile
cause we don't want to die as long here to stay
this is the right way
