

Heather Headley, In My Mind

Imagine seeing him on the town holding another hand
Shes staring me down
So I figure that he told her who I am
But it dont matter either way
What they do or say cause aint nothing changed
Hes standing with her
But his soul is calling out my name

Chorus

In my mind Ill always be his lady
In my mind Ill always be his girl

Saw his mama just the other
Said hed been through a spell
Had a bad break up
Thinks hes on his way up
Its hard to tell
She said
I think itd do some good if you call him every now and then,
You see hes been through some things and Im thinking
He could really use a friend

Chorus

In my mind Ill always be his lady
In my mind Ill always be his girl
Only time will tell if Im his lady
But in my mind, Ill always be his girl

Bridge

They say if you love something
Youve got to let it go
And if it comes back
Then it means so much more
But if it never does
At least you will know
That it was something you had to go through
To grow

Chorus

In my mind Ill always be his lady
In my mind Ill always be his girl
Only time will tell if Im his lady
But in my mind, Ill always be his girl
