

Heather Myles, True Love

Baby, I'm tired of waitin' on you, I'm wearin' out my floor.
You've got women waitin' on you, you're like a revolvin' door.
You live life so cavalier, but time's not on your side.
How much longer will it take until you realize?
Short term lovers under covers,
Well, now that don't mean a thing.
When you find out what you're missin',
Well, I hope it ain't too late.
'Cos when you need someone to hold you,
When your world comes tumblin' down;
I'll be there if you ever need me,
True love won't let you down.

My friends think I'm crazy, they say I'm wastin' my time.
They don't see the magic that you hold in your eyes.
Maybe it's those baby blues that keeps me hypnotized.
I might be a dreamer, but my heart you can't deny:

Short term lovers under covers,
Well, now that don't mean a thing.
When you find out what you're missin',
Well, I hope it ain't too late.
'Cos when you need someone to hold you,
When your world comes tumblin' down;
I'll be there if you ever need me,
True love won't let you down.

Short term lovers under covers,
Well, now that don't mean a thing.
When you find out what you're missin',
Well, I hope it ain't too late.
'Cos when you need someone to hold you,
When your world comes tumblin' down;
I'll be there if you ever need me,
True love won't let you down.

I'll be there if you ever need me,
True love won't let you down.
True love won't let you down.
