

Heather Nova, Fool For You

Thanks to Bajo Philip for submitting the lyrics

You came into my life
I don't think that you meant to
You were standing in a doorway
I was trying to walk through
Like an angel or the devil
I could never quite say
It doesn't matter anyway

So, I'm a fool for you
I'm a fool for you
Open my heart and
Let the wind blow through
'cause I'm a fool for you

You can tell me anything and Honey, I'll believe
'cause when you keep me hangin'
It only feeds the dream
I'm never gonna reach you
You're a distant shore
But you still got me coming back for more

So, I'm a fool for you
I'm a fool for you
Open my heart and
Let the wind blow through
'cause I'm a fool for you
Oh, let the wind blow through

But now the snow is fallin'
All the roads are gone
The earth is movin' and I'm movin' on
I had so much to tell you but no words to say
It doesn't matter anyway

So, I'm a fool for you
I'm a fool for you
Open my heart and
Let the wind blow through
'cause I'm a fool for you

Oh, I'm a fool for you
I'm still a fool for you
Open my heart and
Let the rain fall through
'cause I'm a fool for you
