

Heavens To Betsy, Decide

""Do you wanna get married baby?""
Is that that the way he said it?
Is that the way you asked him?
I know you have to live your life and I live mine
But when I think about it, it still makes me want to cry

""I will decide my life
I will decide this time
"No man is gonna rule my life,"" she said
"I will decide my life""

Make a million promises that you won't keep
Holding on boygirl, I'm dying in my sleep
Wait for something different
Holding on to nothing else but him, him, him, him, him

""I will decide my life
I will decide this time
"No man is gonna rule my life,"" she said
"I will decide this time""

Waiting on forever, waiting on tomorrow
Waiting on a fairy tale
You get rid of all those traps they have set around you
But can you get rid of that seed they planted in your head?

""I will decide my life
I will decide this time
"No man is gonna rule my life,"" she said
"I will decide this time""

Is he a real prince charming? Is he really worth it?
All those things I saw you give up
I wait, I wait for a happy ending
But I could never say goodbye
