Heavenwood, Moonlight Girl

Hey, hey, hey... now, now Where your shadow walk alone Hey, hey, hey... now, now Where your heart heats no more Hey, hey, hey... now, now Where your soul fly away Hey, hey, hey... now, now Where your lips kissed the grave But you still cry in vain Remembering life again You have sold your soul To the mystic, frightning night Girl of the unknown I desire you now... tonight You keep on walking alone Through the moorish valley of dreams You have sold your soul To the mystic, frightning night Girl of the unknown I desire you now... tonight
