

Hefner, As Soon As You're Ready

I will polish your shoes
I will bring you good news
Put a smile on your face and tidy your place
As soon as you're ready

I will build you a ship
Out of matchsticks
And float it down the Thames when we've made amends
As soon as you're ready

As soon as you're ready
As soon as you're ready
I will rattle your cage
When you act your age
As soon as you're ready

Baby clean up your paws
We could both drink some more
But to rush it too soon
On a beautiful moon
Would be a terrible waste

As soon as you're ready
As soon as you're ready

I'll have you bang to rights
I'll have you up all night
As soon as you're ready
