Heideroosjes, Mommy Help!

Mommy help, protect me from reality Tell me it's a dream about bestiality Mommy please, just one more bedtime story In which the good guys have the glory

(CHORUS)

Mommy is it really true? All these cruel things we do Will I do such things when I am full-grown? Will you protect me or am I in this alone?

Daddy, you're the strongest man on earth Held away the demons since my birth But outside in the streets, those demons are the law And I can't find your stories' heroes anymore

(CHORUS)

Daddy is it really true? All these cruel things we do Will I do such things when I am full-grown? Will you protect me or am I in this alone?

Daddy, today someone told me, many men are stronger then you Mommy, today someone told me, not all your stories are true
