

Heinz Winckler, Angel

Don't hate me, don't forgive
This love I have to give
I don't want your sympathy

Don't hold me in this light
I don't feel I can make it right
My hands are all lent out
I don't have the strength
I can't go the length
Can't be the one your depending on

And I'm no Angel to you
I have broken my wings
Flying for you
And I'm no Angel it's true
I'd trade in my halo
Just to save you
Just for you

Time will come to carry me
This flight of fantasy
The life you made a dream
Turn your back face the way
I can't take you to where I came
Your day will be the way
I don't have the strength
I can't go the length
Can't be the one your depending on

And I'm no Angel to you
I have broken my wings
Flying for you
And I'm no Angel it's true
I'd trade in my halo
Just to save you
Just for you
