

Helena, Sunlight

The moon in the sky she sings a lullaby silvery wings dust dreams in my eyes fall asleep to the crickets dancing along in the breeze of circus queens let it be here

now is the time is forever
let it be real and now is the time to dream forever

You are a ray of sunlight and everything's gonna be alright nothing needs to be done the wind sky and sun are giggling
You are a ray of sunlight and everything's gonna be alright
nothing needs to be done

As the rain leaks inside just a little bit and I smile cause I don't mind and the leaves kiss my face they tell a little story about a girl with twinkling curls

let it be here
now is the
time is forever
let it be real and now is the time to dream forever

You are a ray of sunlight and everything's gonna be alright
nothing needs to be done

You are a ray of Sunlight
You are a ray of Sunlight
You are a ray of Sunlight
You are a ray of Sunlight
