

Halloween, Angels

I've had a dream about forgiveness
But I hear the angel sing

The emotions were right
A magical mind like a wonder
A precious heart can be broken
Within one night
Then I realized
She's a devil in disguise
How can I turn back the time?

When angels cause you nightmares
You can't fight them off
Their spell keeps you under control
When angels cause you nightmares
And they fall from the skies
Destroying your life and your soul

In a moment of weakness
We nearly cheated
Expecting too much from life
Pretend to be someone
Not a monster screaming to the night
Will I remember
The magical moments and tears
When she pretended
Angel disappeared

Angels and liars, make me hide
Angels and liars, how I've tried
Hope or desire, what lifts me higher?
Devouring fire

When angels cause you nightmares
You can't fight them off
Their spell keeps you under control
When angels cause you nightmares
And they fall from the skies
Destroying your life and your soul

When angels - cause you nightmares
When angels - cause you nightmares

I've had a dream about forgiveness...
