

Halloween, Skyfall

I fell from the sky
So don't ask me
Why i am feeling so down

Watching the stars falling down from the sky in the night
Crashing from out the heavens
They're burnig so bright
Descend through the atmosphere
Glowing with fiery light
Dragging a tail of white sparkles
And oh, what a sight

Where did i go
How could i know
Defies all reason now

I fell from the sky
So don't ask me
Why i am feeling so down
Attaked, shot down and wercked
There's no turnig back to find my way home

Hey, little aline, little grey
Where's the palce your people stay?
Have you found a place beyond
Where eterity moves on?
Let me detach you
Help me find when goes in in your captors mind
For eternity awaits
On the brik of our escape

Hey little aliben
What heve they done to oyu?
Are the survivors here ot have they all just disappeared?

I fell from the sky
So don't ask me
Why i am feeling so down
Attaked, shot down and wercked
There's no turnig back to find my way home

When the sky falls
And the world you know comes crashing down
When the sky falls
And everything is changing
Change came across the sky
Welcome to the other side
And everything is changing when the sky falls
When teh sky falls
