

Hellraiser, God Of War

I picked a fight
I'm fking right
gonna raise a hell
hey! here I'm coming
on my way
I'm a god of war
you! gonna knock
shit out of you
'cos I feel I'm right

blood and bones
corpses turn in their
stinky graves
open doors
down to hell
now you can't

break this spell
you feel desperate
knon fed in hate
change this lousy world
hey! here I'm coming
on my way
I'm a god of war
you! gonna knock
shit out of you

blood and bones
stinky graves
open doors
now you can't

shot gun pointed at youreye
now you're gonna die
down to your trembling knees
and pray for your life
ten, nine, eight,
seven, six, five - fire!

what you feel
when the trigger clicks
when the bullet rips
into your brain

I'm born to fight
I slash the night
you can hear me cry hey! here I'm coming
on my way

open doors

here comes a god of war
nobody's gonna be savedn no rescue, it's a judgement day all the world is wrapped up in flame!
