

Helolove, Hide & Seek

We could start
Playing hide&seek, babe
Counting lies
There's a lot of time to escape

I have much fun to watch you run away
Although you try
You'll never find
The place that will be shelter

There's no time to live someone else's life
So decide which one of your lies you are
When your thoughts spin around
All this things that you want to hide
When your heart spins around
When your heart, heart, heart

You're so lost
But I'm not gonna chase you
Cause' you're the one
Who's able to describe your role
Can't you see babe
That's not your game from now?
How hard you have not tried
It's just the time
To forget me

Forget it!
Forget it!
To forget me

There's no time
To live someone else's life
Decide
Which one of your lies u are

When your thoughts spin around
All these things, that u wanna hide
When your heart spin around, when your heart, when your heart heart
