

Hey, Fire Of My Soul

sitting in the bar last night i was sitting and up comes a guy who told me he could study the heart of anyone who wanted to try do you wish that life could kill you look like and feel like homicide fire in my soul will save you tell them your salvation has begun no no no... loving changing
i find you in depths of doubt your stone smile needs rescuing and now your broken heart my soul is going to set you free no no no...
loving changing
