

Highwater Rising, Oceans

These oceans in my life feel like they're pulling you away and I see you're drowning and I will give my breath to you if I can just don't go away again
and baby I will hold you find a way to keep you from the cold if I can have you
in my arms again
then I will hold you tight love you through the night never let you go
love love I feel is crashing on me like waves I don't know which way is up but I'm hoping the angel I saw was you
coming to save me cause you're standing there so brightly you must've brought the sunlight with you
don't you know
